

Lathrop GPM's Luke Meriwether Named to Ingram's 40 Under Forty

May 11, 2020

Kansas City, MO (May 11, 2020) - Ingram's Magazine selected Lathrop GPM Partner Luke Meriwether to its 2020 Class of 40 Under Forty honorees. The Missouri and Kansas-area business publication's 40 Under Forty awards recognize those considered to be among the most influential and accomplished young business and community leaders in the region.

A partner in the firm's Kansas City, Missouri, office, Meriwether focuses his practice in intellectual property litigation, and has extensive experience litigating high-stakes patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret disputes (both enforcement and defense) in federal courts throughout the United States, as well as the U.S. International Trade Commission and Patent Trial and Appeal Board. He is entrusted by small, family-owned and multi-million-dollar companies alike to manage high-value litigation matters and bet-the-company cases.

Active in serving his community as well, Meriwether is an alumnus of The Civic Council of Greater Kansas City's Kansas City Tomorrow Class and serves on the Board of Directors for the Western Missouri Soccer League.

Meriwether is featured in Ingram's April 2020 special edition covering the 22nd class of 40 Under Forty honorees.
