

Lathrop GPM Welcomes 14 Law Students for its 2022 Summer Associate Program

May 23, 2022

(May 23, 2022) — Lathrop GPM is proud to welcome 14 Summer Associates to its 10-week summer program. These talented law students will be based in Kansas City, Minneapolis, and St. Louis.

Through the Summer Associate Program, Lathrop GPM provides meaningful work and observation opportunities to 1L and 2L students to help them gain a realistic perspective on the practice of law and to help prepare them for successful legal careers.

This year's 2022 Summer Associate class joins us from seven schools across three of our 13 national offices:

Kansas City

- Adunni Gueye, returning 2L, University of Missouri School of Law - Columbia
- Jay Harrington, returning 2L, Washington University School of Law
- Caitlin Steimle, 2L, University of Kansas School of Law
- Oprah Bennett, 1L, University of Missouri School of Law - Columbia
- Lauryn Masters, 1L, Washington University School of Law

Minneapolis

- Andrew Biddison, returning 2L, University of Minnesota Law School
- Maya Sanaba, returning 2L, University of Iowa College of Law
- Libbi Wilson, returning 2L, University of Minnesota Law School
- Holly Lechner, 2L, Mitchell Hamline School of Law
- Sam Ferguson, 1L, University of Minnesota Law School
- Kai Qi, 1L, University of Minnesota Law School
- Andy Ranc, 1L, Washington University School of Law

St. Louis

- Allie Bass, 2L, University of Missouri School of Law - Columbia
- Andrea Ramos, 1L, Saint Louis University School of Law

During their time at the firm, our Summer Associates participate in case research, author articles on legal developments, participate in pro bono work, and attend virtual and in-person observation, networking, and community events as part of the firm's flexible hybrid work model. Summer Associates can expect to work on an array of client projects submitted by attorneys in a variety of practice groups across the nation. They also take part in the firm's inclusion networks, such as the Women's Initiative Network and Diverse Professionals Network.

To learn more about Lathrop GPM's Summer Associate Program, go to <https://www.lathrooggpm.com/careers-students.html>.