

Finance Attorney Beth Haden Joins Lathrop GPM as Partner in Kansas City

October 10, 2022

KANSAS CITY (October 10, 2022) - Lathrop GPM is pleased to welcome Elizabeth "Beth" Haden to its Business Transactions Practice Group as a partner in the Kansas City office. Haden is the second female partner to join the firm's Kansas City office in recent months.

Haden represents both borrowers and lenders in lending transactions and is a seasoned attorney with significant experience assisting clients with all forms of financing matters, including structuring deals, document negotiation, and complex closings, through loan enforcements and workouts. She regularly represents clients in single-bank, club and syndicated credit facilities, with areas of emphasis in commercial and industrial, real estate, unsecured, agricultural, construction and asset-based loans.

"Beth brings added depth and experience to the team," said Mark Williamson, leader of the firm's Business Transactions Practice Group. "For over a decade, she has provided lenders and borrowers astute advice in their lending transactions."

An active member of the community, Haden is on the board of directors of the Children's Center for the Visually Impaired (CCVI) and the Children's Center Campus. She is a member of the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce Centurions Class of 2020, and currently serves on the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce Business for Education Committee. She was recently recognized in the 24th class of Ingram's "40 Under Forty".

"Beth is a powerhouse in the legal industry and in the community," said Cameron Garrison, Managing Partner of Lathrop GPM. "Her dedication to her clients and others is inspiring and I look forward to all that she will bring to Lathrop GPM and our clients."

Haden earned her J.D. from the University of Missouri in 2009, her L.L.M. in Taxation from Boston University in 2010 and her B.S.B.A from the University of Missouri in 2006.
