

Amanda Kruse Receives Hennepin County Bar Association Award for Pro Bono Work

May 4, 2023

MINNEAPOLIS (May 4, 2023) - Lathrop GPM Associate Amanda Kruse was among the 2023 Hennepin County Bar Association Excellence Awards recipients. One of eight honorees, Kruse was recognized in the pro bono category.

In addition to her successful practice assisting clients with estate planning, charitable giving, business succession planning and estate and trust administration, Kruse dedicates her time and talents as a volunteer with the Volunteer Lawyers' Network. VLN is a nonprofit organization dedicated to connecting Minnesotans experiencing poverty with some of the top private lawyers in the state at no cost.

Kruse's work with VLN focuses on criminal expungements. She fully represents low-income Minnesotans to expunge their state records in order to help these clients find stable jobs and housing.
