Ally Cunningham Joins Lathrop Gage

October 2, 2012

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (October 2, 2012) – Lathrop Gage LLP announced today that Ally Cunningham has joined the firm's Jefferson City office. She will concentrate her practice in environmental law and will transfer to the firm's Kansas City office in January.

Cunningham will represent clients in administrative negotiations with federal and state agencies, advising clients regarding their regulatory requirements and assisting with litigation of environmental claims. She will also advise clients on compliance and permitting under federal environmental laws and regulations. Cunningham received her bachelor of arts from the University of Missouri-Kansas City and her juris doctorate from the University of Missouri School of Law. During school she served as a law clerk for the firm in the Kansas City office and as a law clerk for the United States Attorney's office in Jefferson City.

About Lathrop Gage LLP:
A full-service law firm, Lathrop Gage LLP has more than 320 attorneys in 11 offices nationwide – from Los Angeles to New York. In 2012, Chambers USA ranked Lathrop Gage's corporate, environmental, intellectual property, labor and employment, litigation, real estate and transportation teams among the best in their regions. For more information, visit www.lathropgage.com.