

Alex Ruge Joins Lathrop Gage

April 25, 2014

DENVER (April 25, 2014) – Lathrop Gage LLP announced today that Alex Ruge will be joining the firm as an associate in the patent and trademark department.

Ruge practices in the areas of patent litigation and licensing, specifically those involving electrical, mechanical and chemical matters, including software, websites, medical devices, chemical products and pharmaceuticals. Additionally, he has represented companies in protecting their brands through developing and asserting their trademarks and copyrights to combat infringement and online fraud.

Prior to joining Lathrop Gage, Ruge served as an associate at Ropes & Gray LLP in Chicago. He received his bachelor's degree in chemistry from The University of Colorado and his juris doctorate from Northwestern University School of Law.
