Kim Winter Named to Law360 Insurance Editorial Advisory Board for 2018

April 10, 2018

Kansas City, MO. (April 10, 2018) - Law360 has named Lathrop Gage partner Kimberly Winter, of Lathrop Gage's Insurance Recovery and Counseling team, to its 2018 Insurance Editorial Advisory board. The purpose of the editorial advisory board is to get feedback on Law360's coverage and gain insight from experts in the field on how best to shape future coverage.

With more than 20 years of experience in insurance coverage and insolvency, Winter possesses great insight and perspective into complex coverage disputes. She handles a wide variety of complex coverage disputes arising under general liability, umbrella/excess, product liability, cyber and data breach, employment practices, and environmental policies, among others.

She has also served as counsel for the Director of the Missouri Department of Insurance for certain receivership proceedings involving Missouri-domiciled insolvent insurance companies over the past 20 years.
