

Lathrop Gage's Chicago Office Welcomes Danielle Twait to Business Litigation Team

May 1, 2019

Lathrop Gage is pleased to welcome Danielle N. Twait, joining the firm's Chicago office as Of Counsel. Twait began her legal career with Lathrop Gage ten years ago and rejoins the firm's Business Litigation team.

Over the past decade while working at both boutique and national firms, Twait has counseled and litigated on behalf of clients on a wide range of matters. She has provided legal counseling to small and large businesses, not-for profit corporations and trade associations on labor and employment matters, trademark and copyright protections and contractual issues; and she has represented clients in federal and state courts across the country in diverse litigation cases including defamation defense, intellectual property disputes, employment related matters, class actions, gaming tax litigation and other business-related disputes. Twait's legal career began in the St. Louis, Missouri office of Lathrop Gage; she then transferred to the firm's Chicago office and has continued to practice in Chicago ever since.

Twait received her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, 2008, where she was Staff Editor of the Washington University Law Review. She received her B.S., in Community Health, with highest honors, from the University of Illinois in Champaign, 2005.

About Lathrop Gage

Lathrop Gage is a law firm whose clients form the backbone of our economy. Our attorneys provide strategic guidance in litigation, business and intellectual property law, with deep knowledge and experience in the industries we serve. We work as one integrated team from offices across the country to help our clients see beyond immediate challenges to achieve their most important objectives. For more information, visit www.lathropgage.com.