Andrea Ramos is an associate supporting clients primarily within the firm's Corporate & Business Transactions practice group. Andrea joined the firm after working as a summer associate in 2022, when she represented the firm as a 1L LCLD Scholar, and again in 2023.

Andrea earned her J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law, where she graduated cum laude. During her time in law school, she actively participated in the Human Rights at Home Litigation Clinic, where she worked on civil rights litigation and assisted with submissions to the United Nations Human Rights Council's Special Procedures. Additionally, she volunteered to assist Spanish-speaking clients with their asylum applications, leveraging her fluency to provide valuable support.

Andrea broadened her global perspective during her semester at Université Paris Dauphine, where she studied international corporate law and gained valuable insights into European antitrust regulations and mergers and acquisitions.
