Cheyenne Serrano is a paralegal supporting attorneys within the firm's Private Client Services practice group.

Cheyenne was previously working with the firm's internal partner, Epiq Global Transformation Solutions in our Denver office, where she supported attorneys by assembling estate planning portfolios; drafting pleadings and hearing outlines, as well as management of documents and billing for various clients, often within tight deadlines. Cheyenne graduated from the Community College of Aurora in May of 2022 with an Associate of Applied Science in Paralegal Studies, and will continue her work supporting attorneys in a multitude of ways, with a more specialized practice.
