Cindy Peterson is an experienced paralegal supporting attorneys within the firm's Private Client Services practice group. Cindy brings over 25 years of experience aiding attorneys by performing legal research and preparing documents within areas of elder law, estate administration and planning, intellectual property, tax law, and corporate and general litigation. The breadth and depth of her experience, along with a relentless work ethic and commitment to excellence, give Cindy keen insights that prove to be invaluable for attaining our clients' preferred outcomes.

Prior to joining Lathrop GPM, Cindy acted as a senior corporate paralegal, supporting attorneys at another Kansas area law firm. Cindy is also a certified Notary Public in the state of Missouri.
