

Jasmine Trillos-Decarie

Chief Client Officer

Denver

D 720.931.3125

M 617.875.0364

Jasmine.Decarie@lathropgpm.com

As Chief Client Officer for Lathrop GPM, Jasmine Trillos-Decarie is responsible for leading and unifying all client-experience initiatives throughout the firm. Jasmine brings a wealth of legal-industry experience to this senior administrative team leadership role. She has 35 years' experience at some of the nation's leading Am Law 100 and 200 firms. In these prior roles, Trillos-Decarie has overseen client-value initiatives and business growth across the United States and internationally. She has successfully built, led, motivated and coached cross-functional teams in various geographic locations throughout the nation.

Areas of Focus

An active leader and member of the Legal Marketing Association, Jasmine has served on the International LMA Board of Directors (2008-2009) and the LMA New England Board of Directors (2001-2007), including serving as President. She also served as co-chair of the 2019 LMA Tech West Regional Conference and was directly responsible for returning the conference to a profitable endeavor. Currently, Jasmine is a member of the West Region Board of Directors. She returned to serve as co-chair of the 2023 LMA Tech West Regional Conference and is serving as co-chair of LMA's first joint regional conference, Tech West by South West in 2024.

With Hispanic roots, Jasmine brings a diverse perspective to the leadership team and is pleased to join in the firm's ongoing commitment and value of equity and inclusion.

Outside of the offices, Jasmine enjoys spending time in nature, cycling, skiing and hiking with her husband and son.

Credentials

Education

- University of Massachusetts Boston, B.A., Environmental Economics

Presentations

- Co-presenter, “Up Your Ante: Stacking the Deck to Create a Successful Business Development Curriculum,” Legal Marketing Association Annual Conference, San Diego, April 4, 2024