I see litigation as a real-life version of a “Choose Your Own Adventure” story, where every decision shapes the outcome. My role is to guide clients through those choices, helping them make informed decisions that align with their goals. I love diving into the nuts and bolts of a business and encouraging clients to explain their story in a way that resonates with someone unfamiliar with their industry—because, ultimately, that’s who will decide the case. This approach has allowed me to successfully represent clients nationwide and help them navigate complex legal challenges.

Kate O'Hara Gasper represents clients through all stages of business disputes, from pre-suit advocacy to discovery, depositions and trial. She is known for resolving complex legal matters efficiently, helping clients avoid costly litigation while achieving favorable outcomes. When a trial is necessary, Kate has a proven track record of success, including a case recognized as the #1 Defense Verdict of 2018 by Missouri Lawyers Weekly.

Kate works closely with accounting firms, staffing agencies, insurance brokerages and freight and logistics organizations of all sizes, providing strategic legal counsel across a range of areas, including:

- Accountant liability & risk management
- General business & complex commercial litigation
- Insurance recovery & counseling
- Litigation
- Non-compete, non-solicit, trade secrets and other restrictive covenants
