

Lucas Coe

Associate

San Jose

D 408.299.1348

lucas.coe@lathropgpm.com

Lucas Coe provides commercial litigation services and primarily represents clients in the manufactured housing community industry regarding their operation and management. These matters include preparation of lease agreements and community rules/regulations, rules enforcement and litigation and eviction matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Lucas was a law clerk with Haight, Brown & Bonesteel, where he assisted attorneys representing clients in litigation pertaining to construction, personal injury, contract and professional liability law.

Areas of Focus

Services

Manufactured Housing Communities

General Business & Complex Commercial Litigation

Sectors

Construction

Credentials

Education

- Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, J.D., magna cum laude
- California State University - Fresno, B.A., Philosophy (Prelaw Option), magna cum laude

Bar Admissions

- California (2019)