Ricki Malekyar is a paralegal with 7+ years of experience serving corporate and real estate clients. Ricki has significant experience in corporate transactional matters, including municipal finance transactions, commercial lease audits and providing financial and legal analysis.

Ricki has broad experience managing voluminous financing documents, and regularly assists attorneys with representing states, local governments and nonprofit 501(c)(3) organizations in transactional matters. Ricki regularly:

- Assists with document drafting and due diligence in business transactional closings
- Analyzes financial and accounting records
- Provides valuable insights into legal strategies

Prior to joining Lathrop GPM, Ricki served as a paralegal financial analyst at a public finance law firm where she supported clients in the Tax and Analyst Services department.
