

The Gateway Resilience Fund
providing relief for employees and owners of small businesses in the St. Louis region
Application

The Program: The Gateway Resilience Fund makes grants to support employees, essential contractors, and owners of small businesses in the St. Louis region who are experiencing a financial burden due to a disaster or other extreme situation. All information you provide is confidential.

Eligibility: You are eligible to apply if you meet both of the following conditions:

- You are an employee, essential local contractor, or owner of an independent bar, restaurant, entertainment venue, retail establishment, or other small locally owned business in the St. Louis region
- You have experienced financial burden due to the coronavirus pandemic, a qualifying event.

In addition, a gift from the St. Louis Downtown Community Improvement District (CID) allows the Fund to make $5,000 grants to affected small, locally owned businesses in its 180-block, central business district area, which is roughly north of I-64, south of Convention, west of I-55 and east of 18th Street. Small businesses in this area with at least 5 employees and 2 years in business are eligible to apply.

Grant options for individual support: $1,000 direct payment of bills to vendor OR $500 check mailed to applicant.

Application: To be considered for grant support, read, print or save, and complete all pages of this application.

If you need help completing the application, contact GRF@stlgives.org. Solicitudes aceptadas en español.

- Attach current bills or invoices if you want them paid directly.
- Submit complete, signed application with all required documentation by methods on bottom of page three.
- Checks to applicant will be mailed directly to you at the address below. Vendor checks are mailed directly to the vendor.
- You will be notified of your application status as quickly as humanly possible. Depending on volume of applications, turnaround could take several days. Please be patient with us. This is a new reality for us all.

The Gateway Resilience Fund was established in 2020 to provide emergency relief to employees, owners and essential contractors of restaurants, bars, entertainment venues and other small independent, locally owned businesses in the St. Louis region in response to the coronavirus pandemic. Special funding allows eligible St. Louis City businesses to apply for CID grants.

The fund encourages gifts from individuals, foundations, and companies who believe in the power of community members helping each other. All gifts qualify as a charitable contribution. Give at stlgives.org/covid19/gateway-resilience-fund

The Gateway Resilience Fund is a component fund of the St. Louis Community Foundation, a 501(c)(3) public charity. The Foundation inspires purposeful philanthropy that connects community and donors to build and preserve a more equitable and vibrant region. Neither the Gateway Resilience Fund nor the Foundation discriminates on the basis of race, religion, creed, national origin, gender, age, color, gender identity, veteran status, physical or mental disability or any other protected class.

The St. Louis Community Foundation is solely responsible for all decisions regarding charitable distributions from the fund.
